Subject: August 28th Availability

Max—

Thanks for our discussion this morning. It looks like I have some availability at 4pm on Monday, August 28th. I forgot that I was on travel on August 29th and August 30th. Hopefully this time will work for you and your colleagues. Because some of your colleagues are foreign nationals, there may be additional entry requirements for them. Please have someone from your staff work with Shannon (cc'd above) so that we have the information we need to speed entry into our building.

Thanks again!
